Men do not understand books until they have had a certain amount of life, or at any rate no man understands a deep book until he has seen and lived at least part of its contents. --E. Pound

CONTENTS

Dedication

To a Teacher--Leader of students in the field of math and the fine arts of citizenship.

To a Sponsor--Respected and honored by the students who have been led by her.

To a Friend--Admired by all who know her--parents, students, and co-workers.

We dedicate this book to one who has dedicated her life to unselfish service to the school, annual staff, Senior class, and her community.

The focal point of interest was the Fountain with its eight foot arch.

The chairmen of the various committees, Anita Clugston, Carl Hoskins, Beth Green, David McClure, and Kristin Snyder, found their classmates cooperated in decorating.

Dan McCulley, Junior President, delivered a welcome to faculty and guests. The gym, decorated in shades of pink, carried out the theme, "Three Coins in a Fountain".

Under a starry sky, guests danced to the music of the "Conversion".

The Coins, a group of Juniors, sang the theme song.

The Sophomore girls, as waitresses, served the banquet dinner prepared by the Junior mothers.

Annual Staff

Beverly and Kristin, our co-editors, and Mrs. Way, our sponsor, planned, supervised, and proofread the OHS POW WOV for 1968.

The Music department was the responsibility of Dale and her assistant, Nancy.

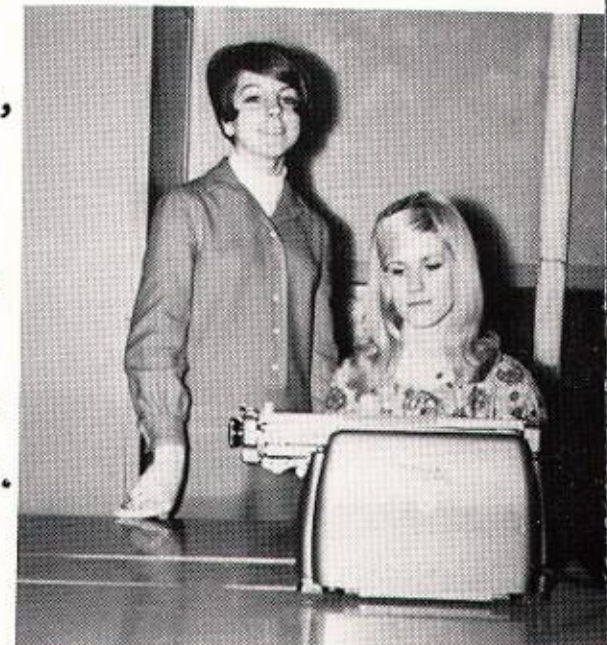

Beth was assisted by Beverly in the sports division. Their main job is deciding on a specific layout for the athletics pages.

New and different ways to arrange pages is one of the most difficult jobs that the Annual Staff must perform. Debby, grade school editor, was assisted by Peggy.

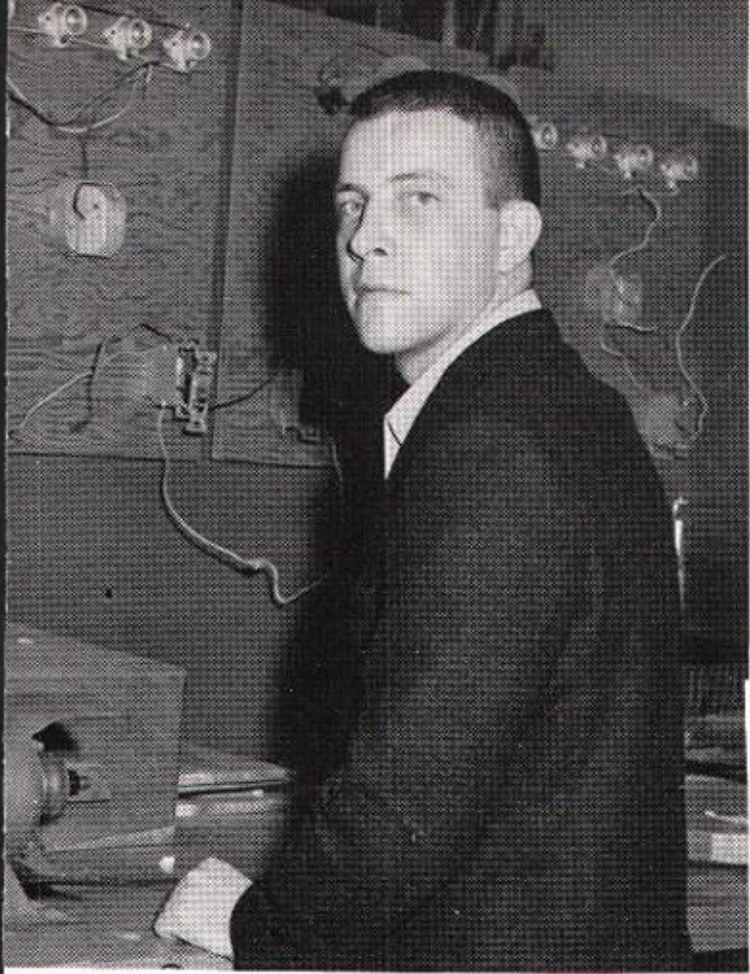

Kay, dramatic editor, and Shirley, who assisted her, are also our cameramen. This year the Staff was fortunate enough to receive a new camera, so many snapshots were taken of different and interesting subjects.

Selling and making ad pages are the first things we do each year. Marcia, business manager, and Roberta, her assistant, were responsible for most of the ad pages.

Cutting out pictures the correct size is a job that takes much of our time. Becky helped Christie, our class editor.

Industrial Arts teacher for second semester is Mr. Duane Bauer.

Second Semester teacher at Service Valley is Mrs. Judith Smith.

Here

High School cooks are Mrs. Edith Oringderff and Mrs. Mildred Allison.

Mrs. Aleene Bradshaw is High School Secretary.

And

Service Valley Custodian is Glenn Wilson.

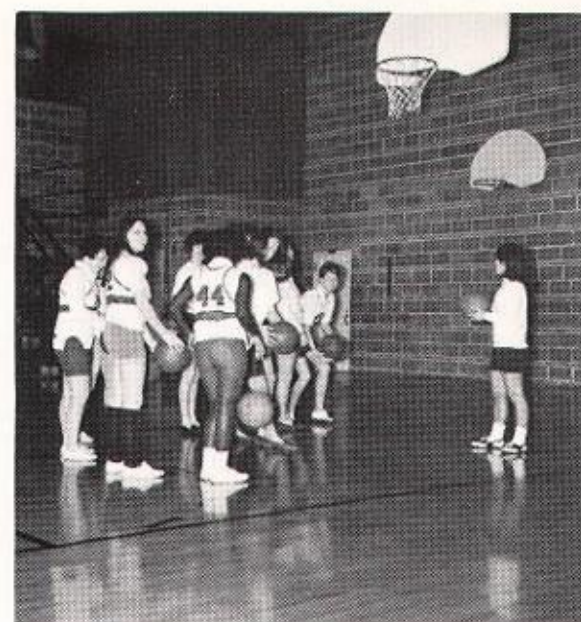

Custodians are Everett Hoobler, Westside; Eugene Newbanks, Jr. High; and Bob Wills, High School.

There

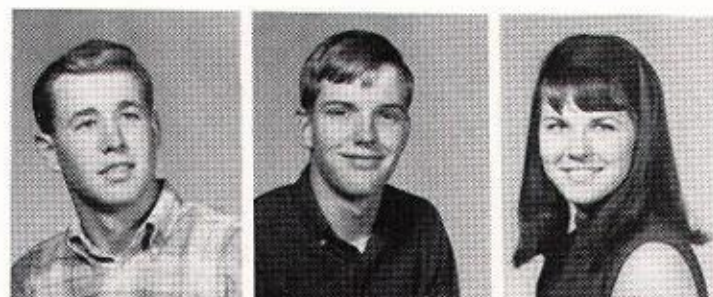

The Student Council sponsored a slave day in the fall. Pictured are the girls' slaves diligently at work.

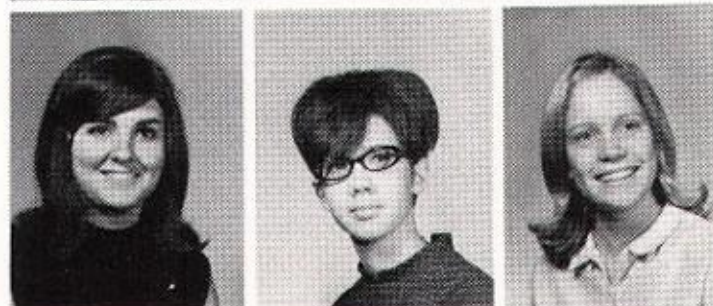

The Junior girls came out in first place in the girls' basketball tournament. Earlier in the year a powder-puff football game was held with the Senior-Sophomore team coming out on top.

Once again the Student Council set up a Christmas tree. All students helped decorate it and thus spread the Christmas spirit.

The sponsor of the organization is Mr. Eugene Burke.

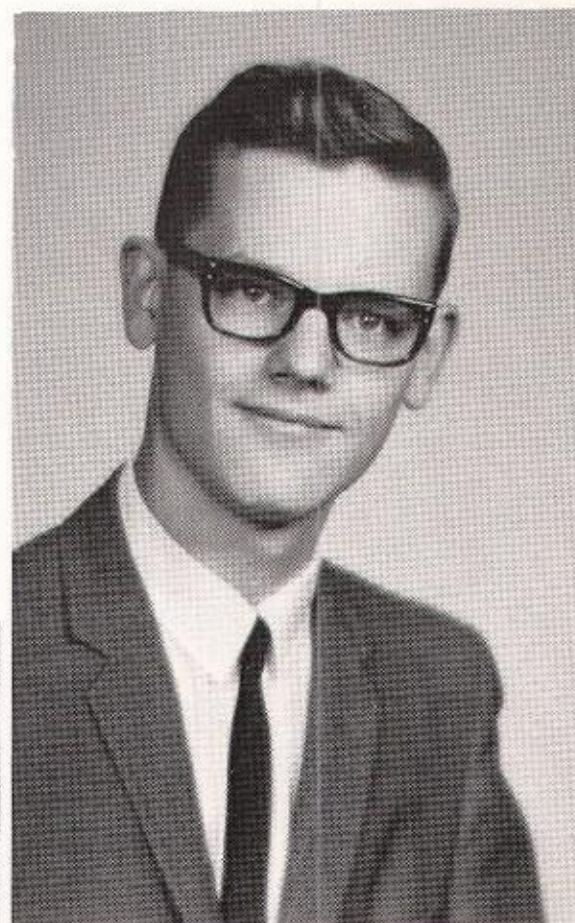

Several dances after ballgames were sponsored by the S. C. At this one the "Rejects", a local band, played.

Student Council members were responsible for the care of the tape-player given to the student body by the local Lions Club.
